

Harvard University Graduate School of Design
CENTER FOR URBAN DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

International Education Program
Infrastructure and Partnerships for Local Economic Development

South Africa
August / September, 2003

Participant Evaluation and Comments

Please help us to continue to develop programs that best suit your needs by answering this questionnaire.

1. Please mark the field that best fits your current work activities:

- ☐ Engineer
- ☐ Municipal Manager
- ☐ Politician
- ☐ Housing
- ☐ Other : _____

2. Please rate the following components of the Program:

Component	Low					High
Structure & Organization	1	2	3	4	5
Case Studies	1	2	3	4	5
Discussion Periods	1	2	3	4	5
Participant Presentations	1	2	3	4	5

3. Rank the relevance of material presented in the Program to your present or future responsibilities.

Not Relevant Very Relevant
1 2 3 4 5

How will you use this material?

4. What were the best features of the Program?

5. What features of the Program could be improved?

6. Rate the following topics (1= Not Useful; 5= Very Useful)

Globalization and Local Economic Development

1 2 3 4 5

Local Agenda 21; Millenium Development Goals

1 2 3 4 5

Meeting the Challenge of Sustainable Development and Social Inclusion

1 2 3 4 5

Strategic Plans and Development Strategies

1 2 3 4 5

Development Corridors, Inter-municipal Agreements and Strategies for Small Towns

1 2 3 4 5

The IDP Process for Planning and Management of Local Development

1 2 3 4 5

Land and Infrastructure as Strategic Resources for Local Economic and Social Development

1 2 3 4 5

CMIP and Local Economic Development

1 2 3 4 5

Community Based Development: Expanding the Scope for Public Private Partnerships

1 2 3 4 5

Financing Capital Improvements: Local Resources, Intergovernmental Transfers and Other Funding Sources

1 2 3 4 5

Housing Strategies for Social Inclusion: The Growing Role of NGOs

1 2 3 4 5

Microfinance in Urban and Rural Development. Infrastructure and Housing as Productive Investments.

1 2 3 4 5

Emerging Trends in Municipal Governance, Participatory Processes in the Planning and Management of Local Development

1 2 3 4 5

Indicators of Performance for Local Development: Economic, Social, and Environmental Indicators

1 2 3 4 5

Local Development Strategies in the Context of Fast-Paced Change: Best Practices

1 2 3 4 5

7. What topics other than the ones presented would you have liked included?

8. How useful did you find the reading materials and visual handouts?

9. The Center is considering organizing an information network for participants in its International Education Programs.

a) Would you be able to contribute an article or information on what you do?

If yes, what topics?

b) On what topics would you be interested in receiving information?

c) Would you be interested in receiving updates on case studies?

d) How else could a network assist you in your work or research?

-

- [illegible]